

Community Outreach Points (COPs)

This class is about isolation/marginalization and community. In pursuit of a theme of community, you will be asked to participate in several community-building activities. You will document your activities by posting a summary of your activity to our course site in Moodle. The activities are described below:

- Each class member is required to sign up to facilitate one community-building exercise in our class (10 pts)
- Community scavenger hunt (10 pts)
- Attend a meeting of a student organization—can be done more than once (5 pts.)
- Attend an event on campus—a lecture, concert, etc.—can be done more than once (5 pts.)
- Attend a second meeting of the same organization and participate (10 pts.)
- Run for office, work on an event, or otherwise participate deeply in a student organization (15 pts.)
- Write a letter or editorial for the university or community paper or respond to someone else's letter/editorial (10 pts.)
- Gather information about taking on a campus leadership role in your future years at UMM—for example, how to be an RA, an orientation group leader, etc. (10 pts.)
- Other—if you participate in something that builds community, write it up and submit it and you may receive points!

68-75 points: A

60-74 points: B

53-59 points: C

45-52 points: D

Community Outreach Points (COPs)

This class is about isolation/marginalization and community. In pursuit of a theme of community, you will be asked to participate in several community-building activities. You will document your activities by posting a summary of your activity to our course site in Moodle. The activities are described below:

- Each class member is required to sign up to facilitate one community-building exercise in our class (10 pts)
- Community scavenger hunt (10 pts)
- Attend a meeting of a student organization—can be done more than once (5 pts.)
- Attend an event on campus—a lecture, concert, etc.—can be done more than once (5 pts.)
- Attend a second meeting of the same organization and participate (10 pts.)
- Run for office, work on an event, or otherwise participate deeply in a student organization (15 pts.)
- Write a letter or editorial for the university or community paper or respond to someone else's letter/editorial (10 pts.)
- Gather information about taking on a campus leadership role in your future years at UMM—for example, how to be an RA, an orientation group leader, etc. (10 pts.)
- Other—if you participate in something that builds community, write it up and submit it and you may receive points!

68-75 points: A

60-74 points: B

53-59 points: C

45-52 points: D